I'm from Kathmandu Nepal. I'm very social and amicable person who loves to travel to different places and interact with people. Smiley, friendly, positive thinking is my special characteristics of mine and I'm very good learner.

I'm Vice President in Youth's UNESCO Club since its establishment in September 2012. I have attended Tunza International Youth Conference held in Nairobi Kenya in 2013 hosted by UNEP. I'm a member of Dynamic team of Youth's UNESCO Club and we have organized different programs; youth peace conference held on April 2013 in Charikot Nepal, Youth Empowerment program for peace, Sports, culture and tourism held in September, 2013; the 7th Youth Peace Ambassadors program held in Kathmandu – Lumbini, Nepal. Moreover that Nepal Olympic Truce Network has elected me as a Program Coordinator on December 2013.

Besides that I'm working as Unit Head professionally Managed Real Estate Agency of Nepal, The Realtors Pvt. Ltd. It is a service industry for the real estate market and I'm there for more than two and half years. I have completed my masters in business study. Managing work in both business organization and social sector is a challenge and I'm able to do that.
