Chibuike Chukwuemeka Mokwe is a young man full of charisma, born into the family of Late Chief and Mrs Zephaniah Mokwe in Unubi Anambra State. I'm a graduate of Abia State University where I obtained my BSc. and MSc. in Architecture. I have travelled to more than five countries with All Nigeria United Nations Students and Youth Association (ANUSA) and served as the director of finance in the same organization (the ABSU chapter).

I have served as a treasurer and training officer in the Nigerian Red Cross Society Youth Southeast Zone Youth Wing, where I won the volunteer celebrity award. Another leadership position includes the President of the NYSC/NDLEA drug free CDS Group, Damaturu zone Yobe State where I won the best volunteer award as well. Added to my portfolio were my activities in the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) Club Damaturu zone, where I worked as a Cadet Purser (Treasurer).

In terms of religion, I follow Christian virtues and services into God and humanity. I was the leader in different Christian organizations. For example, during my National Youth Service here in Nigeria, I was recognized and appreciated for my meritorious and selfless service as well as my outstanding contribution to the development of Yobe State (Honours Award 2009-2010). Currently serving as a National Youth Director at UN-Polac, and also a Director of Peace at International World Youth Forum, I have a passion for youth development issues and youth peace initiatives (e.g. Youth Peace Project as part of the Youth Peace Ambassadors Action Plan).

Finally, I am a member of Child/Youth Finance International where I organized a programme to mark World Money Week, on 16 March 2013. I'm currently the M.D of Rizocard Consult (a subsidiary of Makarizo outfit), a philanthropist, a humanitarian and a goal-getter.
