

Mr. Precious A. Onyeneke (Nigeria)

My name is Precious Ahamefula Onyeneke, I am a Nigerian, born and brought up in Nigeria, where I earned my higher national diploma (HND) and obtained my graduate degree in computer science. I am dynamic in nature with a large appetite to venture into different fields of discipline in order to help people and contribute positively to my nation and the world at large. I love to optimize my life by maximizing my potentials and minimizing waste. As a result of my passion in becoming an outstanding personality in the world, I have undertaken various local and international leadership training in achieving my aims and objectives, such as peace education, unionism, transport/logistics, co-operative society building, etc.

I am presently the transport/logistics manager of Life Flour Mill Limited, Delta state, the executive secretary Youth Peace UNESCO Club Nigeria, a youth facilitator in peace building and development.

Furthermore, I am currently carrying-out my action plan as a Peace Ambassador with other members of my group in promoting the culture of peace to educate youths on Peace Mindsets, Prevention of Violence and Skill Acquisition through erudite lectures and inter-cultural activities in schools, communities and religious places across the states. I am also looking forward to work with any outstanding local or international organization involved in peace building and development.

I have managed numbers of position such as: executive secretary (comrade) in the National Union of Food, Beverage, and Tobacco Employees, Financial Secretary Ikeduru (LG) Development Union, Computer Instructor in various Schools of Computer Science Institutions etc.

I take pleasure in reading, teaching, traveling, exploring the computer, playing table tennis, football etc.
