(robiuljubd@gmail.com)

I am Md. Robiul Islam from Bangladesh. I'm student of MPA at the Department of Public Administration of Jahangirnagar University, Dhaka, Bangladesh.

I'm working for Youth Peace Ambassadors International. I'm also LEO District coordinator of Lions Clubs International LEO Dist. Council 315 A1, Bangladesh and Chairperson of Vision Aid International (youth volunteers' led organization). I have also managed a number of positions such as: YES friend, Transparency International Bangladesh, Chief Coordinator of "Education for Peace Project" for Underprivileged Children in Bangladesh, Debater at Jahangirnagar University Debate Organization, Dhaka, Bangladesh. I was president of Public Administration debating Club of my University and Chief-coordinator of SAARC (South Asian Association of Regional Co-operation) Study and Peace visiting program 2012. My motto is "To start act locally, Think and dream for acting globally".

I visited some countries in the world like Thailand, India, Turkey, and Nepal and participated in different national and international workshops, Trainings and conferences.

I'm just doing my best to be changed and preparing myself to bring positive transformation to build a peaceful world and also work with Global Youth Leaders remaining this purpose. I'm also striving to light a candle and make smiles in the faces of underprivileged children.
