

Ms. Stefy Listiani Santoso (Indonesia)

(stephy.listiani@yahoo.com)

I am 21 and a student at Parahyangan Catholic University, majoring in Accounting, batch of 2010. My interest of environment, social, people and event management brought me to join student organization activities, in which I held responsibilities as a public relations of AICT (Ambassador of Indonesian Cultures & Tourism), as a Head of Internal Division (Human Resource Development) at Nusantara Young Leaders, as a project leader for social project (about green open spaces in Bandung, West Java) that focuses on community development that called AKAR HIDUP, as a Local Committee Coordinator of Indonesian GreenAction Forum Representing UNPAR, as a chairman of Parahyangan Green Challenge 2014, and a division coordinator in several events.

She has been sharpening her communication and interpersonal skills through her experience in UNPAR RADIO STATION (URS 107,7 FM), as a Radio Announcer and Master of Ceremonies (MC) for two years. In 2013, she was being a Delegate of UNPAR for "Democratic and Economics Youth Summit 2013" in Istanbul, Turkey. And, She was selected by McKinsey & Company Indonesia to join Young Leaders for Indonesia Satellite, a pool of Indonesian bright students who are projected to be global class leaders in the future. She was awarded as the winner of Personal Leadership Project (PLP) by McKinsey & Company Indonesia.

Stefy perceives herself as a person who cherishes any opportunity given and strives to get the most out of it, particularly to enrich her insights and experience while exploring herself to find what she's truly passionate about in life. Stefy loves to challenge her self, that's why she do loves travel for exploring new places and also loves to challenge her self through competitions. She won the 2nd Rank of Social Project Idea Competition held by University of Indonesia, STS Malaysia & ILDP UI (ASEAN Scope), 1st Rank of Advance Audit Management Competition held by UNPAR, TOP 8 Finalist out of 900 applicants of Nutrifood Leadership Awards 2013, TOP 30 Finalist out of 400 applicants & The Most Active Finalist of Danamon Young Leaders Awards, and etc. Stefy has a passion to be inspired and inspire others!. Her favorite quotes is "Life is better when you share it" by Oprah Winfrey
