

Proposed Sixth UNESCO Youth Peace Ambassador Training Workshop

INDO-NEPAL
Bangalore, India
June 2013

Objectives

- To provide an international platform along with UNESCO- YPA to the world.
- To highlight the peaceful relationship shared between India and Nepal from many centuries.
- To highlight the cultural significance of India and Nepal.
- To involve youth from India, Nepal and even Africa in peace related activities.

Approach Plan

To involve the following organizations in INDO-NEPAL

Sponsors and Partners

- Jain University – hosting location
- UNESCO – hosting organization
- MESS – co-ordinating committee
- Youth UNESCO club, Nepal – co-ordinating committee
- ATREE – Knowledge Partner
- Karnataka Tourism, Nepal Tourism, Ministry of Peace, Nepal – co-sponsors

Location - Bangalore

- Jain University is located at Bangalore, and is to be approached to host the workshop.
- It has a historical and cultural significance in the South of India and proximity to historical and cultural locations.
- Garden city of India –is serene as it is located at the edge of the Deccan Plateau, it also hosts open spaces and beautiful gardens.
- Weather – a very moderate temperature all round the year.
- International airport
- Proximity of other locations such as Mysore, Coorg, Mangalore, Sirsi, Gokarna.

SET - Jain University

- Location proximity – close to the IT capital Bangalore.
- Availability of international facilities, such as
 - a. Conference Halls
 - b. Recreational facilities
 - c. Internet facilities
 - d. Food
 - e. Accommodation
 - f. Transportation
 - g. Security and Health care facilities

More about - Jain University

African Students

Potentially easier visa procedure for African country participants, especially for students as an existing mechanism does exist between Jain University and the African Student Community.

Time Line

Budget

- A detailed budget analysis will be done during the month of December and January once the project is approved.
- An estimated of budget of USD 20,000 would be required, depending how high the fee for lodging and subsidized students.

Conclusion

- A global opportunity for youth to experience Indian traditions and cultural.
- A global platform to highlight and express Indo-Nepal relationship.
- A platform for South Asian youth from countries like India, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Nepal, Bhutan, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Maldives to participate in Peace related activities. As conflict amongst countries and terrorism plague certain areas of this region, it will also serve as a platform for these youth to interact.
- Funding, the idea of the project is to provide and utilize facilities which are in excess, not in use and can be utilized and hence the issue of funding can be sorted out for free or for subsidized rates.

Initiative by

Vishnu Makam J
Bangalore, India

Vishnu.makam.j@gmail.com

Rimesh Khanal
Kathmandu, Nepal
rimesh909@gmail.com