(bijayatamaharjan@hotmail.com)

I am from the country of Himalayas and its Nepal. I am 25 years of age. I am a board member of Youth's UNESCO Club. I am student of master in social work of Indira Gandhi Open university and I love to work in different organizations, as well I am involved in different organizations too. My experience is always keys of my success. I helped the Club was able organize the Youth Peace Festival in Nepal from April 10th to April 14th 2013.

Regarding my personal hobbies I always love to meet new people with different visions and I love to help different people who have problems. I want to be remembered by name in future when I get old and am in my retired life. I believe Simple Living High Thinking. I love my country and want to see my country to be one of the famous in the world for which I am always ready to help and work for it.
