

Ms. Bijayata Maharjan (Nepal)

(bijayatamaharjan@hotmail.com)

I am from the country of Himalayas and its Nepal. I am a board member of Youth's UNESCO Club and also funding officer of Olympic Truce Nepal. I am student of Masters in social work of Indira Gandhi Open University and I love to work in different organizations. As well I am involved in different organizations, like Alcoholic Recovering Voice Nepal, SAATH, Youth's UNESCO Club and so on. My experience is always keys of my success.. I have joined LBD3 in Koba, Japan 2013, where I got new friends from different countries and also learned lots of things about disaster management.

Regarding my personal hobbies I always love to meet new people with different visions from different countries and I love to help different people who have problems. I want my name to be remembered in the future when I get old and am in my retired life. I believe Simple Living High Thinking. I love my country and always want to welcome in my country. Nerveless, the reasons why I came to YPA7 are because I want to learn how to develop action for change the world.

In conclusion, I hope I can learn a lot of new things from this program and so I can help a lots of people in Nepal and in the world.
