

Mr. Frank Aligarh, (Indonesia)

(frankaligarh@yahoo.com)

My name is Frank Aligarh, I have a motto “ Live is Struggle “. I am a student of Yogyakarta State University (UNY), in the Acccounting Education Department, Faculty of Economics. I am representing the Student legislative board of the Faculty of Economic Yogyakarta State University. I was born 20 years ago in Java Indonesia. I live in Klaten, Central Java, Indonesia. I have big passion to study Civil Economic or Pancasila Economic. Civil Economic is economic system developed in Indonesia. Indonesia has many problems with economic development, so it’s time to help and develop economically my country. In my university I am creating a stadium general with the Ministry of Economic Hatta Rajasa, where we discuss about “ Master Plan Percepatan dan Perluasan Ekonomi Indonesia “ (MP3EI), one of the way to increase the economic development.

At the Youth Peace Ambassador International, I want to share, exchange and get more information especially on the economic systems and the economic ethics around the world, and this will allow me to creat an action plan to solve the economic problems in Indonesia.
