

Ms. Gloria Marcella Morgen Wiria, (Indonesia)

She takes Chemical Engineering at Parahyangan Catholic University, Bandung, Indonesia. She is a Chief of Parahyangan Green Challenge (Environmental Project) 2013, CEO of Majapahit Team (Social Business Project) 2013, Chief of Counseling Event about Catfish in Cimenyan Village 2013, Coordinator Assistant of Basic Chemistry in 2012-2013, Coordinator of Public Relations in Chemical Engineering National Seminar & Workshop 2012 and Chief of Graduation Night of Chemical Engineering I & II in 2010. Now, she implements the Maternal Health Action Plan in Cihanjuang Rahayu Village, West Java, Indonesia and Parahyangan Go Green (Environmental Project by McKinsey Company). She is a Danone Ambassador at Parahyangan Catholic University and Supermember of Indonesian Green Action Forum.

She won The First Rank of Social Entrepreneurship Project National Essay Competition by AIESEC UI 2013, The Fifth Winner of Danone Young Social Entrepreneur 2013, The Best Social Movement team of NTDC in 2012, and The Champion of Environment Slogan Competition in 2011. She actively participates in social activities as a volunteer in the Lions Club, volunteer of Indonesia Youth Forum, volunteer of Bandung Tersenyum, English teacher in Toshaya, activist on environment campaigns, and plants trees. She was also active as a moderator in the Entrepreneurship Bonti Character Building 2013, in Journalism Workshop of Highway Intersection Youth (National Event) 2012, and in Debate Moderator of Candidate Association Chemical Engineering 2012. She had joined internship in UNIQLO (No 1 Fashion Company in Japan) 2013 and PT Pupuk Kujang, Indonesia 2012.

She is one of delegates at the 4th University Scholars Leadership Symposium in the Philippines 2013, the Indonesia Green Action Forum at YPA6 of Youth Peace Ambassadors International Conference in Thailand 2013, the Indonesia Agent Summit 2013, the International Student Conference on Global Citizenship 2013, and a speaker at “Kejungan” Chemical Engineering National Seminar in Yogyakarta 2013. She did research about Biodiesel from waste cooking oil and the last project was about the treatment of pineapple waste into bioethanol. She has a passion to become a change-maker and create a positive impact in Indonesia. Her favorite quote is “You only live once. But if you work it right, once is enough”-Fred Allen.