Curtains for me!

Today was not the best of days. I had an audition, which never fails to freak me out. I don't get stage fright, and I love to perform, it's the being judged (a necessary part of an audition!) that never fails get to me. Whenever someone comments on the arrogance of actors and musicians I usually say: A: You're right and B: Seriously, it's a coping mechanism. It's like a life full of never ending job interviews.

But eh... I'll live. To cheer myself up I went to my new favorite restaurant (Tom and Chee – an entire restaurant of grilled cheese sandwiches!) Afterwards I was happy to find that my linen fabric samples had arrived:

ABOUT RSS

ABOUT ME

Welcome to my blog! My name is Jessica, and I'm a classical piano and voice teacher (as well as a working musician) from Louisville, Kentucky. This blog details my journey into DIY style. I love to sew and knit my own clothes, and I'm a dedicated thrift store shopper! I also love fashion, so I'm attempting to marry my interests without causing myself to go bankrupt. I love bright colors, full skirts, and vintage styles. I love to answer questions, and I can be reached by email at jmills01@gmail.com.

Guidelines - general

- General Content:
- 1. All content submitted in this blog must embody a sense of respect, cultural tolerance, and sensitivity at all times. No violent, rude or discriminatory statements and comments will be allowed.
- 2. All content submitted must abide by copyright laws. Remember to always cite your sources and avoid plagiarism.
- 3. Content in this blog will not be limited to written articles. Other media such as videos, songs, photos and posters may be uploaded as long as these materials are related to the LBD scope of interest.

Guidelines – blog entry

- Blog Entry:
- 1. So as to accommodate an international setting, articles must be written in English. However, the writer can also have the liberty to also submit the same article in his or her local language. If the writer wishes to submit both the English and the local language version, both of these will be posted in one same journal space.
- 2. One article per country must be placed every two months. However, the editors of this blog may change the rule to one article per month depending on the volume of articles being sent.
- 3. The country coordinators will review all articles and content submitted by LBD Youth Delegate writers before it will be published. However, once published, the blog editors claim no ownership to the views held by the one who submitted the content or article.
- 4. Each blog entry shall be properly cited with the name of the one who generated that online article.
- 5. Submit your blog entries to this e-mail: ricardo_roy_2007@yahoo.com.ph & lbdblog2012@gmail.com
