

UNESCO Youth Peace Festivals: Music, Drama & Football in Brunei Darussalam

Faizul H. Ibrahim

Affiliation with: The Creative Academy of the Narrative & the Dramatic Arts & Sciences

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

Problem STATEMENT

- Youth are ignorant of what's happening outside of Brunei.
- Apathetic attitude towards social issues.
- Lack spirit of volunteerism.
- Lack of empathy.

TWO PARALLEL PROGRAMS

- 1) Beats of Unity (Peace Concert)
 - Reach through to the community through the art of music and theatre.

- 2) A Goal for Tomorrow (Futsal Tournament)
 - Football promotes solidarity, unity, friendship & also spirit of working together regardless of who we are and where we are from.

VENUE FOR MUSIC AND DRAMA

- Polo Club Royal Berkshire (Beats of

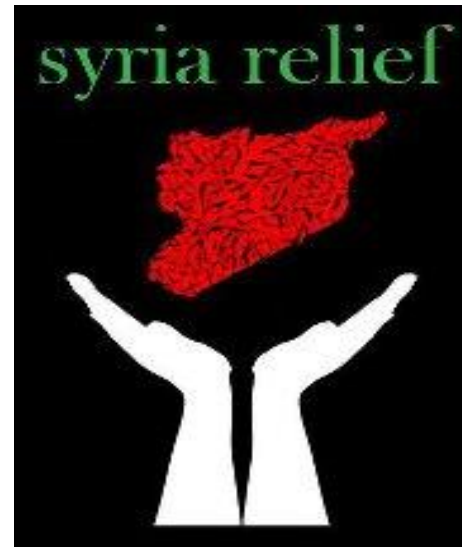

VENUE FOR football

- Youth Center (A Goal For Tomorrow)

CHALLENGES

- 1) Government Approval
- 2) Endorsements
- 3) Formality
- 4) Money raised

BUDGET & FUNDING

- Through sponsorships.
- Financial support from The Creative Academy of the Narratives & Dramatic Arts & Sciences.

Estimated budget for A Goal For Tomorrow: B$700

Estimated budget for Beats of Unity: B$3000

Stakeholders

- Youth from all 4 districts in Brunei.
- Brunei National Commission to UNESCO.
- The Creative Academy of The Narrative & Dramatic Arts & Sciences.
- Syria Relief Charity.
- Ministry of Education.
- UNESCO Bangkok and UNESCO Jakarta.

TIMELINE

- Approach National Commission of Brunei Darussalam to UNESCO (November 2012).
- Planning Committees formed (January 2013).
- Advertise for the events (March 2013).
- Football event (June 2013).
- Music event (June 2013).
- Evaluation meeting of organizing team (July 2013).
- Share experiences with Youth Peace Festivals in other countries (July 2013).

CONTACTS

Email:

Faizul.h.ibrahim@gmail.com

Facebook:

www.facebook.com/faizul.h.ibrahim

Twitter:

@faizulhibrahim