

Yogyakarta Youth Peace Camp: Conflict Resolution among High School Students

By :

Hafian Fuad

Frank Aligarh

Rizqa Devi Anazifa

Akhmad Muawal H

Ihwanul Hakim

YOGYAKARTA STATE UNIVERSITY

YOUTH PEACE AMBASSADOR 6 ACTION PLAN

As a student, ideally...

Do Learning and Playing

Instead of doing those things,
they sometimes.....

Sometimes.....

Sometimes....

How is their future?

Problem Statement

- The number of street brawls of students in Yogyakarta is increasing. 46 dead in Indonesia within the last 3 years
- There are some ironic facts that almost every school in Yogyakarta has its own enemy and safeguarded by some gangsters. It becomes a Pathological Deviation.
- They even destroy the public service and hijack the transportation .
- DEMORALIZATION-CRIMINALITY

Interschool Violence

Muhammadiyah 2 H.S vs SMA 6

Stemsa vs Mutu H.S

Muhammadiyah 2 H.S vs Bosa H.S

Rem H.S vs SMA 2

Muhammadiyah 3 H.S vs Boda H.S

Boda H.S vs Muhammadiyah 3 H.S

SMK 2 H.S vs Boda H.S

Muhammadiyah 1 H.S vs Bopkri H.S

Objectives

- Create the awareness about the importance of peace.
- Promote community and social cohesion through peace education and leadership program.
- Encourage the students to do some positive, productive and creative activities.
- Empower the students to be aware of their role in social humanities issues.
- Help the teachers, government and local authorities to reduce fighting among the students

Activities

- Camp
- Workshop
- Out bound
- Traditional games
- Discussion
- Community Action
- Peace Agreement

The Sustainability of the program:

(e.g. Anti Tank Project Street art community in Yogyakarta based on social-politic critic)

TIME LINE

MONTH	AGENDA
MAY 2013 (Now)	Making the proposal
JUNE 2013	Opening recruitment for the volunteer Looking for the sponsors and funding
JULY 2013	Opening recruitment for the volunteer Looking for the sponsors and funding
AUGUST 2013	First meeting with the volunteer Looking for the sponsors and funding
SEPTEMBER 2013	Registration for the Camp
OCTOBER 2013	Registration for the Camp
SEPTEMBER 2013	Yogyakarta Youth Peace Camp

Potential Sources of Funding

- Yogyakarta State University
- Stakeholders
- Media Group (Jawa Post-Radar Jogja)
- Sari Husada (Milk Manufacture)
- CSR Program
- Charity

Confirmed Partners

- Yogyakarta State University
- Youth Peace Ambassador (YPA)
- Eubios Ethics Institute

Potential Partners

- Children Protection Commission
- National Commission for Human Right
- Journalism Student Activity EKSPRESI
- Magenta Radio
- Beritajogja.co.id
- Jagoannews.com
- Kedaulatan rakyat
- Anti Tank Project
- Some other NGOs and Local Communities

Budgeting

Hotel	USD 1000
Venues	USD 150
Administrations	USD 100
Door prize	USD 200
Speaker fees	USD 800
Speaker accommodations	USD 200
Foods	USD 1500
Certificates	USD 50
Seminar kit	USD 175
Calculations	USD 4175

Evaluation Strategies

Targeting & Segmentation

www.JuneCollier.com

Target of participants in the Camp are 100 participants (Senior High School Students)

Target of volunteers are 20 volunteers

Documentation (Recording Sessions, Photos)

Evaluation (Questionnaire, evaluation forms)

Challenges

- Lack of funding
- Lack of volunteers
- Potential rejection from the students (Target)
- Sustained interest

Contact Information

- PHONE : +6289610934079
- EMAIL : hafianfuad@gmail.com
- FACEBOOK : Hafian Fuad
- TWITTER : @hafianfuad
- BLOG : sedikitruang.blogspot.com

