Problem Statement

- People's memories of natural disasters that hit Japan on 11 March 2011 are gradually fading.
- The voices of people affected by the disasters are not well addressed in Japanese society.

Our Project

- To record people's memories of the disasters
- To establish our website for sharing voices
- To spread their voices through the website

Goals

- To raise voices of people who have experienced natural disasters
- To raise people's awareness about natural disasters through the website

Targets

- People who have experienced natural disasters
- High school students
- University students

Timeline
