

Ms. Suzzaine Ann R. Vargas (Philippines)

(Email: zaine_vargas@yahoo.com)

Born in Quezon City, Philippines on the day of October 11, 1994. She is the eldest among the 3 daughters. Her family lived at Cainta, Rizal but then migrated to Pili, Camarines Sur in Bicol for good. She graduated at Universidad De Sta. Isabel for her elementary years and continued her secondary education at Ateneo De Naga University. She received a few honorable and second honor awards during her high school days. After high school, she decided to go back to Manila to take up her college degree at St. Paul University Quezon City, taking up a Bachelor course Majoring in Biology. She is currently the Secretary of the Biology Society.

As a Biology Student, she is obliged to help save our world from climate change and make big changes from small deeds by taking care of the environment. She has participated in several environmental advocacies such as the G-Project, Tree Planting Activities, Coastal Clean-Ups, Green Valentine, and Trash Bank. She wanted to expand her helping hand abilities, and furthermore improved it by joining the Looking beyond Disaster Youth Forum, a great opportunity for peace youth-leaders.
